In Convention.
Assembly Chamber, State Capitol
Monday September 30th 1878.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment Governor Irwin in the chair

The roll was called ~~and~~ and 145 delegates were found to be present

Messrs Terry, Campbell and Inman delegates elect appeared, came forward to the Presidents desk, and subscribed to the oath of office

Mr White moved, that Mr Beck be requested to act as temporary secretary of this convention, and upon his acceptance that he be declared temporary secretary of this convention, until the convention shall have elected a permanent Secretary

The chair ruled the resolution out of order, and Mr White appealed from his ruling.

The question occuring upon the question shall the decision of the chair stand as the decision of the Convention, a vote was taken and the chair sustained

The Governor then announced the following appointments, to act till the Convention should be permanently organized;

Minute Clerk — A. J. Dobbins.
Sergeant at Arms — J. M. Farrelly
Watchman — Jas Sanitry.
Door Keeper — B. F. Alexander.
Porter ~~Hiram~~ Wm Clock.

The Governor here called the attention of the Convention to a sealed document, addressed to the "Members of the Constitutional Convention," which was laid upon the table till the Convention should be organized.

Mr Tully moved that the Convention do now proceed to vote for President of the Convention. So ordered.

Mr Barbour here sent a resolution to the desk, which the President ruled out of order on the ground that the Convention had just decided to proceed to vote for a President.

11

Mr Barbour appealed from the ruling of the Chair, and the question being shall the decision of the Chair stand as the decision of the Convention, the ayes and nays were demanded by Messrs. Barbour Beerstecher and O. Sullivan

The roll was called and the chair sustained by the following vote;

Resolved, That all persons proposed as candidates for President and President pro tem. of this Convention shall be required, before being voted for, to come forward and define their position on the following propositions:

1st.

Whether the State has the power to control railroad corporations — in the regulation of fares and freights, in preventing and prohibiting discriminations, in prohibiting the consolidation of parallel or competing lines, directly or indirectly, in preventing the watering of their stock, in requiring frequent sworn public reports of the proceedings of their directors or trustees and of their business, in requiring them to allow the agents of the State appointed for that purpose, and the stockholders, to inspect their books, in requiring all intending corporations to file an executed acceptance of such provisions of a Constitution prior to granting them any charter, and in debarring all existing corporations from all future privileges or legislation unless they also file such acceptance. — And whether the candidate is in favor of the exercise of such or similar power?

2d.

Whether he is opposed to land monopoly, and in favor of using the power of the State to prevent and wipe it out?

3d.

Whether he is in favor of subjecting all incorporated companies furnishing water or gas to incorporated cities or towns to the control of such cities or towns, in respect to the rates they shall be allowed to charge for these necessa=
=ries of life?

4th.

Whether he is in favor of prohibiting all lotteries, and declaring stock dealing on "margins", "puts and calls," and similar devices, lotteries?

5th.

Whether he is in favor of abating the Chi=
=nese nuisance, and using the whole power of the State to do so?

6th

Whether he is in favor of taxing mortgages, and reducing the rate of interest?

4. Ruled out of order.
