Resolved.

That there shall be elected by each of the executive committees of the several political parties duly organized in the county, three persons who shall when so elected have power to elect by a majority vote a competent and suitable person to supervise, inspect and expert the books and accounts of each and every county officer in the county for wich he may be so elected.

The said person when so elected to have the right and privilege of inspecting said books and accounts as often as he may deem it expedient or necessary.

The compensation of said person elected as aforesaid to be determined and paid by the board of supervisors of the county for wich he may have been so elected.

The said expert or inspector to hold his office till next municipal election takes place, unless it is certified and proved that he has not satisfactory fulfilled his duty, and only in such case the committee that nominated him will have power to procure his removal and proceed to reemplace him in his situation.
