105 Journal of Yesterday
read and upon some corrections in the rec ord in the case of
Mrs. Mhr[illegible] was approved
Mrs. Murphy from the Committee on Phono-graphic reporter presented the following report—

(41)
106 President of the Convention.

Sir Your Committee on reporting the proceedings of this Convention, having had its powers enlarged so as to take in the subject of printing the reports, beg leave to make the following report on the whole subject.

That the cost of reporting Verbatim the proceedings and debates in short hand and transcribing them into long hand ready for the printer, will not exceed eight thousand dollars for the session, if it last one hundred days, and ~~that~~ this sum includes the per diem of the reporters.

That if the session do not last one hundred days, the transcribing will not exceed the sum of six thousand dollars, and the State will have the advantage of such less cost as may be incurred in case of a short session, by only paying

(5) for the transcription by the folio at the rate of 20 cents per folio.

That the cost of printing the proceedings and debates in the form of the Illinois Reports will amount to $4.643.60 per volume of 950 pages - this for 1000 copies bound and complete

That the cost of printing 500 copies of 500 pages of the Journal will reach $1.039.

That the cost of printing the daily journal for the use of the members will amount to about $200 for the session

James E Murphy
Chairman

Report received

Mr. Wyatt moved to indefinitely postpone the report.
