Amendment No. 3-32

Scheduled.

Committee amendments:

~~Strike~~

Sec. 2

The committee recommended the following amendment:

[SEC. 2. That all recognizances, obligations, and all other instruments entered into or executed before the adoption of this Constitution to this State, or to any subdivision thereof, or any municipality therein, and all fines, taxes, penalties, and forfeitures due or owing to this State, or any subdivision or municipality, and all writs, prosecutions, actions, and causes of action, except as herein otherwise provided, shall continue and remain unaffected by the adoption of this Constitution. All indictments or informations which shall have been found, or may hereafter be found, for any crime or offense committed before this Constitution takes effect, may be proceeded upon as if no change had taken place, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution.]

Sec. 4

The Committee recommended the following

~~amendment~~

[SEC. 4. The Superintendent of Printing of the State of California shall, at least thirty days before the first Wednesday in May, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, on such terms as may be reasonable, select and contract with one newspaper proprietor in each county in this State, in which a newspaper is published, for the publication and issuance once a week for two successive weeks next before said election in their respective papers, as a supplement thereto, the printed copies of this Constitution as hereinafter provided. The circulation of such papers shall be taken into consideration in making such contracts and selection, and the papers so selected shall issue a number of such supplements equal to the circulation of such papers in this State. In counties containing property of an assessable valuation of ten million dollars or over, not more than three such papers may be so selected. The Superintendent of Printing shall cause to be printed and delivered to the newspapers so selected, in due time for publication thereof, a number of such supplements equal to twice the State circulation of such papers. The Governor shall issue his proclamation, giving notice of the election for the adoption or rejection of this Constitution, at least thirty days before the said first Wednesday of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, and the Boards of Supervisors of the several counties shall cause said proclamation to be made public in their respective counties, and general notice of said election to be given at least fifteen days next before said election.]

10 Oct
Mr. Webster offered the following amendment:—

Strike out all down to and including the word "papers" where it occurs in the 15th line, and insert the following:

"The Superintendent of Printing of the State of California shall at least thirty days before the first wednesday in may A.D. 1879 cause to be printed at the State printing office, in pamphlet form, simply stitched as many copies of this Constitution as there are registered voters in this state, and mail one copy thereof to the Post-Office address of each registered voter;

171

Provided - any copies not called for ten days after reaching this delivery office, shall be subject to general distribution by the several Postmasters of the State."

adopted.

The amendment of the Committee as amended was concurred in.

Sec. 6

The Committee recommended the following amendment:

18

[SEC. 6. The Clerks of the several counties in the State shall, at least five days before said election, cause to be delivered to the Inspectors of Elections, at each election precinct or polling place in their respective counties, suitable poll-books, forms of return, and an equal number of the aforesaid ballots, which number, in the aggregate, must be ten times greater than the number of voters in the said election precincts or polling places. The returns of the number of votes cast at the Presidential election in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six shall serve as a basis of calculation for this and the preceding section; provided, that the duties in this and the preceding section imposed upon the Clerk of the respective counties shall in the City and County of San Francisco be performed by the Registrar of Voters for said city and county.]

Mr. Blackmer offered the following amendment:

Insert before "Poll books" in line 4 the word "Registers"

adopted

Committee amendment as amended concurred in.

Sec. 8.

The Committee recommended the following

19

[SEC. 8. The officers of the several counties of this State, whose duty it is, under the law, to receive and canvass the returns from the several precincts of their respective counties, as well as of the City and County of San Francisco, shall meet at the usual places of meeting for such purposes on the first Monday after said election. If, at the time of meeting, the returns from each precinct in the county in which the polls were opened have been received, the Board must then and there proceed to canvass the returns; but if all the returns have not been received, the canvass must be postponed from day to day until all the returns are received, or until six postponements have been had, when they shall proceed to make out returns of the votes cast for and against the new Constitution; and the proceedings of said Boards shall be the same as those prescribed for like Boards in the case of an election for Governor. Upon the completion of said canvass and returns, the said Board shall immediately certify the same, in the usual form, to the Governor of the State of California.]

Enacted in.
Sec. 10
The committee recommended the following amendment.—

[SEC. 10. In order that future elections in this State shall conform to the requirements of this Constitution, the term of all officers elected at the first election under the same shall be, respectively, one year shorter than the terms as in this Constitution provided; and the successors of all such officers shall be elected at the last election before the expiration of the terms as in this section provided. The first officers chosen after the adoption of this Constitution shall be elected at the time and in the manner now provided by law.]

Mr Moreland offered the following amendment:—

add to section:

"Judicial Officers and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be elected at the time and in the manner that state officers are elected"
