12) Thomas

Messrs. Estee, Reddy, Murphy, Mully and Hilborn demanded the previous question on the adoption of the article.

The convention refused to order the main question put.

~~Sec. 5.~~

Mr Wyatt. offered the following amendment to Sec. 3.

13)

add to Sec 5

And Any Contract Made or entered into in this State whereby the lender shall directly or indirectly by discount or otherwise receive a grater interest than ~~Ten~~ per centum per annum upon the dollar for the loan use hire or forbearance for the payment of money shall be null and void This section shall be enforced by appropiate legislation

~~Put of order~~

Mr. Edgerton made a point of order that the amendment was not germane to the section and under rule 28 was out of order.

The President decided the point of ~~order~~ well taken and ruled the amendment out of order

~~From the decision of the President~~ Messrs Wyatt, West and Every appealed from the decision of the Chair — From the question "Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the convention" the ayes and noes were demanded by Messrs Reynolds, Wyatt, Every, West and Wilson of Johnson. Mr. McCallum moved to lay the appeal on the table, upon which the cages and nets were deposited by Messrs. Reynolds, Wyatt, Evey, West and Wilmot Schaare

The roll was called and the motion appeal laid on the table by the following vote:

Messrs. Vacquerel, Larkin, Hunter, McConnell, and Harrington demanded the previous question. The Convention refused to order the previous question.

Mr. Wentz offered the following amendment to section nine:—

[SECTION 10.] The University of California shall constitute a public trust, and its organization and government shall be perpetually continued in the form and character prescribed by the organic Act creating the same, passed March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and the several Acts amendatory thereof, subject only to such legislative control as may be necessary to insure compliance with the terms of its endowments, and the proper investment and security of its funds. It shall be entirely independent of all political or sectarian influence, and kept free therefrom in the appointment of its Regents and in the administration of its affairs; provided, that all the moneys derived from the sale of the public lands donated to this State by Act of Congress, approved July second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and the several Acts amendatory thereof, shall be invested as provided by said Act of Congress, and the interest of said moneys shall be inviolably appropriated to the endowment, support, and maintenance of at least one college of agriculture, where the leading objects shall be (without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics,) to teach such branches of learning as are related to scientific and practical agriculture and the mechanic arts, in accordance with the requirements and conditions of said Act of Congress; and the Legislature shall provide that if through neglect, misappropriation, or any other contingency, any portion of the fund so set apart shall be diminished or lost, the State shall replace such portion so lost or misappropriated, so that the principal thereof shall remain forever undiminished.

Mr. Ayers offered the following amendment to the amendment:—

Add. No person shall be debarred admission to any of the collegiate departments of the University on account of sex."

Messrs. Walker of Columbia, West, Stuart, Burstedt and Estes demanded the previous question, which was ordered by the Convention.

Upon the adoption of the amendment of Mr Ayers the ayes and noes were demanded by Messrs. Walker of Columbia, O'Sullivan of Lancaster, West and Herrington

The roll was called and the amendment adopted by the following vote:

Mr. President:— I hereby give notice that I will on tomorrow move to reconsider the vote by which the Convention this day adopted ~~the~~ An bill an Ordinance

Mr. Reynolds moved to reconsider the vote by which the article on Judicial Dept. was adopted.

Mr. Edgerton made a point of order that there had been no notice given of such motion.

The President decided the point well taken.

Mr. Reynolds rose to a question of Privilege and proceeded that it was in connection with the motion to reconsider.

The President decided it not to be a question of privilege.

Mrs. Reynolds desired to appeal but the Chair decided that there could be no appeal in such cases ~~from~~ under the rules.
