Rejected.

Mrs. Burbour offered the following amendment to section ten:

44

Amended

Amend Sec 10 by substituting therefor the following

SEC. 10. In order that future elections in this State shall conform to the requirements of this Constitution, the term of all officers elected at the first election under the same, and whose term of office is four years or over, shall be, respectively, one year shorter than the term provided for in this Constitution, and the term of all officers whose term of office is two years shall be, respectively, one year longer than the term provided for in this Constitution, except the members of the Assembly, whose first term of office shall be one year; and the successors of all such officers shall be elected at the last election before the expiration of the terms as in this section provided. The first officers chosen after the adoption of this Constitution shall be elected at the time and in the manner now provided by law.

Judicial officers and the Superintendent of public instruction, at the first election under this Constitution, shall be elected at the time and in the manner that State officers are elected.

~~Barbour~~

upon the adoption of the amendment the ayes and noes were demanded by Messrs. Beerstecher, O'Sullivan, Jozee, Doyle and Condon.

The roll was called and the amendment rejected by the following vote:
