

CALIFORNIA STATE ARCHIVES

PRESERVATION WORKSHOP

APPLICATION FORM

GENERAL INFORMATION

Each year in celebration of Archives Month, the California State Archives hosts a free one-day Preservation Workshop. This workshop teaches basic preservation techniques for repairing paper-based materials. Topics include: surface cleaning, mending and flattening methods suitable for small institutions. Supplies and practice documents are provided by the California State Archives. Attendees will receive an hour lunch break, however, lunch will not be provided.

The 2016 Preservation Workshop will be open to twelve individuals and will be held on Tuesday, October 18th, 2016 from 9:30 am – 4:30 pm at the California State Archives Preservation Lab, 1020 “O” Street, 3rd Floor, Sacramento, CA 95814.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

- Participation in the California State Archives Preservation Workshop is by application only. To be considered for selection to the Preservation Workshop, applicants must complete the following application form.
- Applicants should demonstrate a professional need to learn preservation and conservation techniques. It is suggested that participants currently hold a volunteer or paid position that involves direct work with historical records.
- Applications should be fully completed and received no later than September 14th, 2016. Applications should be typed or clearly printed in black ink and may be submitted by email or mail using the address listed below. Applications are available as a fillable PDF through our website: <http://www.sos.ca.gov/archives/public-events/archives-month/preservation-workshop/>.
- Depending on the number of responses we receive, we may only permit one attendee from each repository. If the workshop is unable to accommodate multiple attendees from a repository, the repository will be asked to prioritize which attendee(s) should attend.

Application questions and submissions may be directed to the California State Archives:
