Proclamation

WHEREAS, the value of women to the history of our City, State and Federal Government is being highlighted in a month-long observance in Sacramento, California, by the Commission on the Status of Women; and

WHEREAS, working women today constitute a large segment of the nation's work force; and

WHEREAS, an increasing number of women are seeking higher education and gaining advancement in business and professional institutions; and

WHEREAS, women are consistently giving greater service to their communities through leadership in charitable organizations, volunteer service, and educational and cultural contributions; and

WHEREAS, women have worked diligently and effectively in strengthening our representative forms of government and are increasingly involved in positions of political responsibility; and

WHEREAS, women continue to achieve varied accomplishments while maintaining and giving sustenance to the family unit.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NORMA ARIAS-HICKS, Mayor of the City of Brea on behalf of the Brea City Council, do hereby proclaim the month of March, 1988, as Women's History Month and encourage all residents to acknowledge the value of women to the history of our State and encourage women to continue efforts resulting in establishing a higher quality of life for our community.

City of Palmdale, California

PROCLAMATION

IN OBSERVANCE OF WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

WHEREAS, Women's History Month coincides with International Women's Day, March 8th, originally proclaimed in 1910 to recognize and commemorate the valuable contributions women have made to the labor movement to improve working conditions and thus better people's lives; and the observance of Women's History Week was begun by the Sonoma County Commission on the Status of Women in 1978, and has since been expanded to be celebrated for the entire month of March throughout the nation by schools, historians, and community groups; and

WHEREAS, by not knowing women's contributions, our children, and all members of society, lose the richness of women's heritage and often the inspiration to become active participants and responsible citizens; students, both female and male, will profit from an awareness of the significance and scope of women's roles in the making of history and in their consistent contributions to the development of society as a whole, and, the celebration of Women's History Month provides an opportunity for schools and communities to focus attention on the historic heritage of women; and

WHEREAS, because of the significance of women's roles in shaping society, it is important that the City of Rohnert Park recognize the many contributions of women.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Arthur F. Hollingsworth, Jr., Mayor of the City of Rohnert Park do hereby proclaim the month of March as

"WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH"

and encourage the citizens of our city to join me in this special recognition.

DULY AND REGULARLY PROCLAIMED this 9th day of January, 1990.

CITY OF ROHNERT PARK

Mayor Arthur F. Hollingsworth, Jr.
