

OCTOBER 2026

CALIFORNIA

ARCHIVES MONTH

CALIFORNIA IN THE 1970S

(Above) Sacramento's Asian community protesting Fantasia Miniature Golf Course due to its signs depicting racist Chinese caricatures and pidgin English. Boycott racism, 1974 - Photograph by Dick Schmidt, Sacramento Bee collection, 1983/001/SBPM10013 - Center for Sacramento History.

(Right) Disability rights activists demonstrating in Sacramento as part of a national protest demanding the implementation of a 1973 Civil Rights Act amendment prohibiting workplace discrimination against the disabled. Disability rights activists, April 5, 1977 - Photograph by Dick Schmidt, Sacramento Bee collection, 1983/001/SBPM04677 - Center for Sacramento History.

(Far Right) A man operating a BetaCom 700H computer graphics system at NASA Ames Research Center. BetaCom 700H computer graphic systems, 1978 - Photography by George Olczak - NASA Ames Research Center Archives.

